When the case was called for hearing, Counsellor Joseph N. Bliidi, In-House Counsel for the National Elections Commission, and Counsellors Frank Musa Dean and C. Alexander Zoe appeared for the movant/appellee. Counsellor Finley Y. Karngar appeared for the respondent/appellant.

Having listened to the arguments and contentions advanced by the parties, reviewed the facts and circumstances presented in the certified records, and examined the laws controlling in the case; and being satisfied that the respondent/appellant did not file his bill of exceptions within the time prescribed by the New Elections Law and the Regulations of the National Elections Commission, thereby depriving this Court of the required jurisdiction to hear the appeal on the merits, it is

ADJUDGED:

That the motion to dismiss the appeal filed by the movant/appellee is hereby granted and the appeal taken from the final ruling of the National Elections Commission ordered dismissed.

The Clerk of this Court is hereby ordered to send a mandate to the National Elections Commission to resume jurisdiction over this case and give effect to this judgment. Costs are ruled against the respondent/appellant. AND IT IS HEREBY SO ORDERED.
